TERRITORIAL EXPANSION.

The question of territorial expansion abroad will doubtless constitute the main issue in the United States Senate at the next session of Congress. Until the last few years, when the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands began to be occasionally considered, the question of expansion beyond the North American continent was never seriously considered. The old Whig party was opposed to the Mexican war which gave us California, Nevada and Utah and in fact nearly our entire possessions west of the Eastern base of the Rocky Mountains. The Republican party, since its existence has followed substantially, in this respect, the lines of the Whig policy, and in fact every square mile of territory beyond the limits of the thirteen original States, has been acquired either by purchase or conquest, during the administration of the Democratic party, with the exception of Alaska, which was purchased during the term of a Republican President.

But the result of the Spanish war has raised a new issue, not only of expansion beyond the limits of our own continent, but the organization of a colonial system similar to that adopted many generations ago, by the principal powers of Europe. But for the Spanish war, it is questionable whether the United States would have claimed anything more than a coaling station at the Hawaiian Islands and certainly the acquisition of the Philippine Islands would not have been dreamed of. But the war has changed the feelings of attention to expansion and the adoption of the colonial system. It is the unwritten law of nations that the conquered must, like the loser in a suit at law, pay the costs and damages of the conquerors. Spain is bankrupt in treasury and credit and is unable to indemnify our government for its outlay except by relinquishing her claim to the territory which was taken possession of by the United States forces. It is either that or nothing. That territory under an intelligent and powerful nation, rich as it is in natural resources, would be made ten times as productive as it has been under Spanish rule, thus adding not only to the wealth of the United States, but proportionately, to the entire civilized world.

Our Constitution and laws in relation to the government of territories are peculiarly adapted to the colonial system. Congress has the power to make the laws for the acquired territory and to keep it in a territorial condition until the people are fitted to be trusted with the responsibilities of Statehood, until more than a quarter of a century Utah was denied Statehood for more than a quarter of a century after she had twice the population of any of the States by which she was surrounded, and there is no reason why the Philippines should not remain in the same political condition for generations if necessary.

Forced as we are to take the property from Spain, acquired, we will admit, incidentally, by conquest in a war inaugurated in the interest of humanity, for the liberation of Cuba, we have to make the best of the circumstances and conditions, and we cannot conceive any better method, than absolute annexation and the inauguration of a colonial system, conducted under our laws relating to the government of territories.

ENEMIES OF SILVER.

Senator McBride of Oregon is enthusiastic over the prospects for immediate gold legislation. He is in Washington City now, being announced as the first Western Senator to arrive. In an interview published in a New York paper, the Senator says that "the campaign for sound money has been growing constantly on the coast and interior mountain States." He points to the gains made by Republicans in Wyoming, Nevada, Utah and his own State as an evidence of his claim.

But Senator McBride makes the mistake of thinking that these gains for the goldbugs are permanent or even actual. In the States he mentioned, party divisions gave the appearance of increase of Republican strength, which is not verified by the facts. In Nevada for instance, the combined vote of three candidates for Governor, Silver party, Democratic and Populist, all 16 to 1 silver men, was 6,789, while the Republican candidate received 3,548, more than half of which were cast by silver men who were actuated by other reasons than aversion to bimetallicism, in their support of Mr. McMillan, who himself claims to be a silver man. In 1900 the issue will be squarely met on both sides, with the silver men united against the goldbugs, when it is a two to one bet that the elective votes of Oregon, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada will be cast for the silver candidate. Nevada will give Bryan a vote of at least three to one.

When congratulated by an eminent English musician on her betrothal to Baron Oederstrom, Adelina Patti said: "I now look forward to being happy for the first time in my life."

Adelina has said the same thing twice before, once when she was married to the Marquis de Caux, and again when she left him to live as the mistress of Nicolini, the tenor. Adelina's happiness is evidently of a very accommodating nature.—Sac. Bee.

Stock for Sale.

Five hundred shares of Reno Mill and Lumber Company stock is offered for sale. The stock pays regular annual dividends. The business is well established and under thorough management and a splendid opportunity is offered for a good safe investment. Apply to
Geo. H. Taylor,
Washoe County Bank.

The cost of school books in California where they furnish books to the children at the cost of manufacture is over 75 per cent less than the people of Nevada pay for similar books under the private contract system. The eastern contracting still occupies Nevada. —Bridgeport Chronicle.

SHOPPING IN ITALY.

Outlandish Methods That Make It a Most tiresome Task.

A source of trial is what appears to us the outlandish method of having things that apparently belong together sold in different establishments. Silks are found in one shop, woollens in another and ribbons in a third. At none of these can one buy needles and thread. If a woman wishes to hang a pair of curtains, she purchases the materials at one shop, the rod and rings at a different place, the iron fixtures at a third and has to go to a fourth to find an upholsterer to put them up. She must visit a tobacco shop for salt and cannot find, as with us, vegetables, fruit or bread at a grocer's. It may thus readily be seen that one must travel a good deal to do her marketing or shopping.

Add to all this the confusion incident to the fact that the standards of measure and weight are different from ours, a meter exceeding a yard and a pound containing but 16 ounces, and a faint idea may be formed of the mental complications of the traveler.

There is also a certain amount of beating down to be done in nearly every shop, and even after half an hour's bargaining the purchaser cherishes awful doubts lest she might not have bought the thing cheaper. Shopping is really almost equal to the contemplation of faded frescoes for lowering the mental tone, and it is hard to say which has the more to answer for in the exhausted state in which most travelers leave Italy.—Harper's Bazar.

Herr Strauss' Eccentricities.

Writing of the eccentricities of Herr Strauss, the dance music composer, a Vienna writer says he is as nervous as a composer as he is a director. Glad in a velvet costume, with patent leather boots reaching to his knees, his eyes aflame and in a fit of inspiration, he goes striding through the house like a maniac. If inspiration does not come to him in the salon, he clutches his papers and goes to his bedroom or to his wife's boudoir. Sometimes the waltz begun in the parlor is finished in the kitchen. Mrs. Strauss, who appreciates and understands her husband's habits, has half a dozen pianos scattered through the house, and in each room a table with writing materials, so that in whatever nook her husband finds himself he is quite at home. Mrs. Strauss was once a favorite actress on the Vienna stage.

Miss Hoyt's Golf Arm.

Miss Beatrix Hoyt is a nonpareil. Yet a woman, she has a man's arm and a man's clear eye. That stroke of hers is an anatomical masterpiece, and some day her "golf arm" will be immortalized in that great history of sport and athletics which is bound to be written sooner or later. But, in spite of the enduring accuracy of that stroke, it is wondered if the woman golf champion of the United States can throw a stone and hit the mark.—Boston Herald.

Royal Honor.

Louis XII of France, having made a certain bargain with King Ferdinand of Spain, found that Ferdinand had grievously cheated him, whereupon he made complaint of his dealing. The Spanish king made answer to the court as follows: "The king of France is complaining that I have deceived him twice. He lies. I have deceived him more than ten times."

Ritter's Elite is the headquarters for all. The best of wines, liquors and cigars are to be had at the bar. Hot tamales and oyster cocktails are served to guests and the treatment one receives at the house calls forth praise from visitors.

It is now telegraphed from Washington that no effort will be made to debar Roberts, the Utah polygamist, from taking his seat in the lower house of Congress. No doubt many Congressmen thought that if the question of plural "wives" was pressed too close they might lose their seats.

Loofbourrow, the Cash Grocer, is still in the lead for lowest prices on all kinds of groceries, provisions, tobacco, tinware etc. His goods are reliable, and his experience of over twenty years in the business will insure you the most capable and honest treatment in all of his dealings. Patronize the man that always brings down high prices when he strikes a town, and raises them only when he leaves the town.

As the JOURNAL mentioned in yesterday morning's issue, District Attorney Julien has commenced a criminal suit against Senator-elect Flannigan for failing to file his statement of election expenses as required by law. While this is strictly in accordance with a provision in the Parity of Elections law, all candidates who were defeated are equally required to file their statements and are equally responsible under the law for failing to do so, and we presume that Mr. Julien will not discriminate between them. The JOURNAL understands, if the suit against Mr. Flannigan is successful, that a special election will be held to fill the vacancy, but we do not understand how this can be done before the meeting of the Legislature, as the Senate is understood to be the only power that can declare that a vacancy exists. There should be no mistake made in this matter, for Washoe will need a full delegation in each House to hold down her constitution if enemies on all questions relating to her interest, and especially in the matter of the cutting off of the southern end of our county.

A Cruel Awakening.

The callow youth who does the exorbitantly funny business on the Virginia Report, compares the "JOURNAL luminaries" knowledge of law to a "vacuum," because the unfortunate scribe had ventured the opinion that the legislators-elect, who had failed to file their expense accounts with the proper officer, the latter could not legally issue their certificates of election, as the law positively prohibits him from doing so, and that the question of admission or rejection would have to be decided by the respective Houses to which the candidates were elected. As the JOURNAL scribe happened to be the author of the law which bears upon this matter, he labored under the hallucination that he knew something about it, until so cruelly awakened to his folly by the ponderous intellect of the legal head-light (or light head) of the Report.

But we forgive you, sonny, and will defer taking you across our journalistic knee and administering such mild corporal punishment as tender hearted parents some times feel enforced to inflict upon their saucy or disobedient progeny.

S. J. Hodgkinson.

Grand Chancellor of Knights of Pythias of the Domain of Nevada, made Toiyabe Lodge No. 9, K. of P., an official visit Saturday night, at its Castle Hall in Austin. A large attendance of the membership greeted the Chancellor, and two hours were profitably spent with him in executive session.

Mr. Hodgkinson is one of the solid business men of Reno, and has visited all the lodges in the eastern part of the State except DeLamar, and is now on his way to western Nevada to finish his labors.

After the Knights had finished their work Saturday evening, the lady members of Knights' families were invited to the hall, and a committee of Knights served oysters, coffee and other refreshments, and until 11:30 P. M. a very pleasant evening was spent by all.

The Chancellor spent Sunday in town, and departed Monday A. M. for his home in Reno. —Reveille.

Don't Miss It.

Farce comedy will have an inning at McKissick's Opera House next Saturday when Chas. E. Blaney's big extravaganza success, "A Boy Wanted" will be presented, and a superior article in the way of farce comedy is promised. This production is the latest success of Mr. Blaney who has to his credit the creation of several big laugh producers. Of course, while "A Boy Wanted" has no definite plot, it serves to introduce several decided novelties, together with pretty girls, well known comedians, singers, dancers and high class vaudeville artists, making it one of the largest and strongest companies traveling, and playing to capacity of theaters everywhere.

The Chrysanthemum Tea.

The Chrysanthemum Tea at Masonic Hall Wednesday evening was a decided success socially, financially and musically. The hall was exquisitely decorated with flowers, chrysanthemums of course being the principal floral decorations. The program was carried out in full and all of the participants in the exercises were greeted with liberal applause. The entertainment was given by the ladies of the Relief Corps, who left nothing undone to make the affair the success that it was. The JOURNAL understands that the entertainment netted the handsome little sum of thirty-six dollars.

Senator Stewart Sued.

William Webster and Son of the NEVADA STATE JOURNAL yesterday commenced suit against Wm. M. Stewart for the sum of $552.80. The suit was for 19,000 extra copies of the JOURNAL for gratuitous circulation, and other printing, contracted for by the defendant, the bill being indorsed as correct by the Senators' Secretary. It included a considerable amount of clerical and other extra work necessary to fold, address and mail the extra copies. The papers were served on the Senator at the depot as he was leaving on the train for the east.

There is a good deal of talk about the newly invented voting machine used at Rochester at the last election. The cost of one of them is about $100. We will contract to furnish 100 machine voters for half the money and wont go out of the Republican party in Washoe county to find them.

Sam Davis didn't get any of the best of it in his little tilt with Bingham of the Times-Review. You will find, Samuel, those Tuscarora fellows tough customers to tackle, so take the JOURNAL's advice, both of you, and quit discussing grammar and penmanship and talk about something good to eat.

The Virginia Report wants to know how a recount of the votes can be had; how it can be inaugurated and who will conduct it. Let the editor furnish any school boy ten years of age a copy of the Compiled Laws of Nevada and the urebrii will furnish in less than twenty minutes the information desired.

There is considerable speculation as to the attitude of Assemblyman-elect Godney in the Senatorial fight. Many Silver party men claim his vote can be counted for Stewart. Democrats, on the other hand, scent at the idea and point to the platform on which Godney ran, forgetting that platforms are but designed to catch votes. —Elko Argonaut.

Miss A. Motley.

Gardnerville threatens to establish a bank and private stage line direct to Carson if the express company carries out its threat of removing their office from Gardnerville.

Notwithstanding the tremendous claims of the Republicans, in no State of the Union was there an increase over the vote of 1896, and in many cases their majority decreased over 50 per cent.

John Hancock, who was tried for burglary in Los Angeles county and sent to San Quentin for ten years, has confessed to the murders of Dr. Engleke and Pete Edmiston on the desert of Southern Nevada over a year ago.

A fine assortment of purses of all kinds for ladies, gents and children at "The Model." Also a fine line of stationery in boxes, writing tablets, envelopes, visiting cards, pens, ink, maulage, etc. Harry Davis carries a full line of the above-named articles.

Mr. Pinniger and Miss Claire Dickinson announces to their friends and the public generally, the receipt of a varied and beautiful stock of goods in their department stores. Mr. Pinniger presents a handsome souvenir calendar for 1899, containing a picture of Fitzhugh Lee.

Fitzsimmons claims to be the only non-faker in the profession. If that is the case he had better retire from the ring, as he can find no one but fakers to contest with—therefore it will be impossible to engage in a square fight, hence making himself at least an accessory to a fake affair.

There is a good deal of talk about the newly invented voting machine used at Rochester at the last election. The cost of one of them is about $100. We will contract to furnish 100 machine voters for half the money and wont go out of the Republican party in Washoe county to find them.

Sam Davis didn't get any of the best of it in his little tilt with Bingham of the Times-Review. You will find, Samuel, those Tuscarora fellows tough customers to tackle, so take the JOURNAL's advice, both of you, and quit discussing grammar and penmanship and talk about something good to eat.

The Virginia Report wants to know how a recount of the votes can be had; how it can be inaugurated and who will conduct it. Let the editor furnish any school boy ten years of age a copy of the Compiled Laws of Nevada and the urebrii will furnish in less than twenty minutes the information desired.

There is considerable speculation as to the attitude of Assemblyman-elect Godney in the Senatorial fight. Many Silver party men claim his vote can be counted for Stewart. Democrats, on the other hand, scent at the idea and point to the platform on which Godney ran, forgetting that platforms are but designed to catch votes. —Elko Argonaut.

Charles Pepper fell down a shaft in the Bounce mine, Silver Star, last Friday, and sustained severe injuries. It seems that while attempting to descend the shaft on a ladder, he missed his footing and fell to the bottom, a distance of 65 feet. He struck on his back on a wheelbarrow, cutting through his clothing and badly lacerating his body. The extent of his injuries is not as yet known, but it is feared that that some of his ribs are broken. The shaft is not quite perpendicular, and to this fact Mr. Pepper no doubt owes his escape from instant death, as he made several ineffectual efforts to clutch the footwall in his descent, thus materially breaking the force of the fall. He was brought to Hawthorne on Saturday's train, and on Sunday he was taken to San Francisco for treatment. He is able to walk and talk a little and it is hoped that the internal injuries are slight. —Hawthorne Bulletin.

How To Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver is inactive, you have a billious look; if your stomach is disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at S. J. Hodekison's Drug Store. 50 cents per bottle.

The Soldiers Vote.

It appears to be the general impression among the legal fraternity that there is no provision under our statutes for the counting of the soldiers' vote. If this is the case the next Legislature should make such change in the election laws as will in the future give the heroes and patriots who went out at their country's call to sustain the honor of the starry flag, the same privilege that is accorded every hoodlum and loafer who stands ready at every election to barter his vote for a couple of dollars or a few jolts of chain-lightning whiskey.

Should Ladies Run for Office?

Ladies, look here, and gentlemen, too, for that matter. Now you think this is an advertisement, well, what if it is, you will read it just the same. Now what I want you to bear in mind is this: Are you aware that this is November, and that Christmas is only a little over a month off? Goodness, gracious! If you want anything in our line, don't put it off till the last minute. Come now, lots of them say that you can get just as good work at the Riverside studio as you can in the city and it's so, to.

An Enterprising Druggist.

Another Richmond.

Z. Pierce of Wellington came to town Wednesday with a big load of apples. Mr. Pierce informs the Bulletin that he is a candidate for the United States Senate. He is a straight Republican and says he has assurances that his chances are good. He thinks he can harmonize what he terms the "discordant element" in the Legislature, and prevail upon it to support him. Maybeso. He will probably emerge from the contest a poorer but a wiser man. —Hawthorne Bulletin.

Changes in the Capitol.

It is reported that the changes in the Capitol under the new regime will be as follows:

The Surveyor-General's office to remain as it is now.

Jack Doane to be Controller Davis' deputy.

Riley Davis to be Private Secretary to the Governor in the event of Sadler's election.

Frank Wilds to be Deputy Treasurer. The State Library to remain the same.

With two fake fights in succession the public will weary of patronizing those boxing exhibitions and nothing will go but a finish fight at Carson. And that's the way it ought to be. —Report.

Can't a finished fight be faked as well as any other? The Sharkey-Corbett contest was really a finish fight, besides operating as a finisher of prize fighting in New York.

Company A. N. N. G. has taken the initiatory steps to a re-organization. A large number of citizens have signed the roll and the officers have been elected.
